Community Living
Connections^{INC}

Community Living Connections Inc is a local, non-profit organization founded in 2004. Our mission is to support individuals to live their best life in their own home and in the community. CLC provides person-centered supports that emphasize dignity, respect, and independence. CLC has a rich history of partnering with adults with disabilities to safely and successfully live in their own homes. www.clconnections.org

Movin' Out

Movin Out is a non-profit organization that, in partnership with people with disabilities and their allies, creates and sustains community-integrated, safe, affordable housing solutions. One way we do that is to develop new apartment buildings like Ruxton Apartments, often in partnership with other developers. We leverage subsidies to ensure that 20% of the units are affordable to and reserved for low income people with disabilities and/or veterans. We are proud to be a partner in this exciting development in Platteville. www.movin-out.org

Inclusa manages the provision of a person-centered and community-focused approach to long-term care services and supports to over 15,500 Family Care members across its 52-county service region in Wisconsin. www.inclusa.org
